"As I See It"

By LANGLOIS

What the El Cajon Valley and surrounding communities will be like a decade from now can be envisioned by any one who watches the present growth and reads between the lines. The growth of this section of San Diego County in the past ten years is astounding.

Even so, the change in the next ten years will be even greater.

Our past and present problem is water. That will be overcome because any challenge such as this always finds some group that will meet it. As I see it today, what are now residential sections must make way for business, because business makes business.

What to some people may appear as a dreamer's wish, is the present talk about a three-mile tunnel under the Laguna Mountains, through which it is planned to run a six-lane highway and double track highway.

What this would mean to the communities in and adjacent to the El Cajon Valley is more than breath-taking, inasmuch as this tunnel will come out in the Valley. It will mean mainline, transcontinental railroads, a short trucking haul from the Imperial Valley and Arizona; a harbor full of ships, and an influx of new business. This tunnel deal, as we first heard about it some five years ago, originated in Long Beach, with a group of businessmen who were plenty dissatisfied with the run-around they were (and still get) from the present R.R. setup.

They have been planning since with a local group and a meeting is called for Sept. 12 by the San Diego Highway Development Association.

That this will be accomplished is without doubt to me. I can well remember when the Golden Gate bridge was thought to be a hashish eater's dream. I was also there when the bridge was opened, and today is accepted as a matter of fact. The Oakland bridge is now going to have a twin. These bridges have about cleaned up their debts. It has always been the case when men of vision start a thing, they find means to finish it. The Panama Canal, Boulder Dam and the Los Angeles Aqueduct, are examples of men's dreams come to life. It will be the same with this Laguna tunnel. It behooves local businessmen to plan to meet these new conditions that are coming. One of the main things today for business to think of is parking space.

Lack of parking space is causing San Diego business firms to lose business to outlying communities which have had the foresight to meet this situation. El Cajon is an outstanding example of this foresightedness—a wide main street and large parking lots adjoining the business firms.

That this is paying dividends goes without argument, and that the growth of this section of the county has only begun will be proven as time goes by.

The Fiestabahia celebration is only the beginning of making this county a tourist Mecca and playground. This project, quite a job in itself, is also the result of someone's dream. Oldtimers like myself feel, when we see what is taking place in our State, that we were born 40 years too soon.

I am not sticking my neck out too far when I predict that another decade will see it built solidly from the Mexican border to Los Angeles and from Los Angeles to Santa Barbara.

Ninety per cent of the people in the U. S. dream of coming to California, and of that 90%, 80% mean Southern California.

If you have property here, hang on to it. If not, get some. A piece of Southern California is the best investment I know of.

Too bad I couldn't see that 40 years ago.

Coach Says Grossmont Gridders "Look Good"

The 1949 editions of the Grossmont football team got off to a rolling start Monday at GUHS, with Les Bogle as head mentor and Ralph Chaplin, Phil Morrell and Ken Maynard as assistants.

About 120 prospective players tried their hand at passing, tackling and running.

When asked about the '49 Foothillers, Coach Bogle replied: "They look good." The backfield is strong with Hal Norris, Bill Finneran, Al Archard and last year's injured Ernie Magginni to carry the ball.

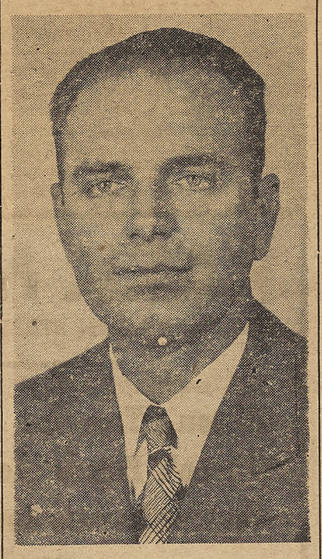
Time only will tell where the Foothillers will fulfill expectations to be at or near the top in the Coast League.

Junior Varsity and Frosh-Soph teams will work out with the Varsity hopefuls all through the week.

Men Worth Knowing

We present this week one of the younger generation of men in Lakeside who has taken an active interest in civic affairs. Lakeside will continue to be a place where people choose to live as long as we are fortunate to have the leadership of men like

HENRY (Bing) MILLER



Boys' Work Is His Hobby

Born in Savannah, Ga., in the year 1913, "Bing," as he is known to his friends, grew up to be the same type of man that made up the Army of Gen. Robt. E. Lee. That, to all Americans who know their history, is all that needs be said.

He traveled the usual course of all American boys through grammar and high school, finally arriving at the University of Kentucky. Here, in the course of time, he graduated in mechanical engineering. More important than this, though, was his meeting Sallie Stewart while at the University. Sallie, likewise, when she met Bing, promptly put aside any ideas she may have had of going through life unmarried (so Bing tells us), Sally is discreetly silent about this matter, but she also wanted a degree in arts and sciences from the University, and she got it!

Then the nation began to arm itself against the possibility of war.

Bing entered the service as a lieutenant in 1940, saw service in the South Pacific and was mustered out a lieutenant-colonel in 1946. He was attached to the Sixth Div. 8A Hdqtrs.

While he was in the service, Sallie had the foresight to know they would need a home when her husband returned. She took their savings and bought their present home. That move, according to Bing, confirmed his opinion he had married the right girl.

As president of the Optimist Club, Bing has worked for the completion of the Veterans' Memorial Building.

Boys' work is his main interest and he leads the Optimist Club naturally, because of its outstanding work locally and nationally as "Friend of the Boy."

As an active Reserve Officer, he has recently received orders to organize the 6505th R. and D. groups at Fort Rosecrans.

In between these activities, Bing manages to spend some time with his son, Morgan.

With the generation of men like Bing Miller taking their place in civic affairs, this community and the nation need not worry about the future.

Solicit Memberships For Farm Bureau

Hart Dunham, membership chairman of the Lakeside Farm Bureau Center, has announced completion of plans for the 1950 Farm Bureau Membership drive.

The membership drive will begin with a kickoff breakfast on Tuesday, Sept. 13, 8 o'clock, at the Community Church in Lakeside.

It is expected that 25 men and women will be in attendance at this breakfast. These volunteers will be given final instructions. Plans are for a complete mapping of the rural areas, with each volunteer worker assigned to a territory close to his residence.

Leaders in the various districts are Claude Weston, Clarence Foster, John Wilkinson, Vernon Cornelius, A. C. Metcalfe, Chas. M. Lucas, Earl Michael and Mrs. Aaron Larson.

These leaders will call on their neighbors and inform them of the advantages and savings enjoyed by those who belong to the Farm Bureau.

George Simpson of Lakeside and Bill Tisdale of San Diego left Monday to spend a week making a tour of Boulder Dam, Grand Canyon and other points of interest along the way. They will return Friday or Saturday and will be ready Monday morning to take their places with other students at State.

New Definition For 'Capital Punishment'

Lakeside Kiwanians heard a new definition Wednesday for "capital punishment," given by Harvey L. Lewis, Jr., head of the Lewis Colonial Mortuary, Ohio and El Cajon Blvd.

Giving a luncheon address on "Our Four Rights," Mr. Lewis defined "capital punishment" as follows: "When the government goes into business to undersell you; then takes your profits to cover its losses."

Mr. Lewis is one of San Diego's youngest business men. In addition to being head of a large mortuary firm, he is president of the San Diego City Board of Education. At 21, he was president of the El Cajon Boulevard Association.

In his talk on "Our Four Rights," Mr. Lewis outlined them as follows:

"OUR FOUR RIGHTS"

1. The right to employ ourselves in America. During the recent war and the years before it, we saw more and more people over the world being told what to do and when to do it. In America, anyone can start his own business if he wants to.

2. The right to educate ourselves. The local school boards have the right to set the policies and the legislative machinery for our schools. The first move Hitler and Mussolini made was to take over the schools. Our schools are the best in the world and the pupils are smarter than they were 25 years ago. In San Diego there will be 1400 more going to school this fall than last spring—a ratio of increase that is bound to continue for several years.

3. The right to express ourselves. People must not only be able to express themselves freely they must be informed. Freedom of speech is just as free as the responsibility of the person who uses it.

4. Right to govern ourselves—a precious right, and we should vote at every election, whether it be for a school board, a governor or a president. Our schools have failed to put over this point, the point of getting out to vote.

RIGHTS ABRIDGED?

Then the speaker asked "Are there at the present time encroachments on these four rights?" He said he notices some trends in that direction and urged his hearers to guard the fundamental four rights he outlined. "Make sure," he said, "that your sons do not have to fight for these rights."

Mr. Lewis was introduced by Bert Webb, chairman of the day, who, in turn, was introduced by President Walker, with a brief biography:

Bert was born in Texas in 1912; went to school in California; moved to San Diego in 1933; married Ernestine Lewis and moved to Lakeside in 1942. He is a paving and excavating contractor.

Entertainment was provided by the Eileen Faree 4-pc. Hawaiian orchestra, and by the "Moonlighters" quartet.

Claude Weston announced a net profit of $33.80 for the Kiwanis youth fund, from tickets sold to the softball game at Balboa Stadium.

Next week's program promises to be outstanding, with an address by J. C. Safely, managing editor of the Union-Tribune, and a short talk by Bud Held about his European trip this summer.

Harvey Lewis, Sr., a real estate dealer of East San Diego, was a guest at Wednesday's luncheon, as were Ben Cerveny, president of the El Cajon Chamber of Commerce; Johnny Metcalfe and Bud Held.

Attendance was down because of the 100 plus temperature.

The speaker praised the work the Lakeside Kiwanis Club has done in beautifying the grounds of the new Lindo Park School. President Walker praised the members of the Agricultural Committee for their efforts on this project.

C. D. McKinnon, Repr. Home for Two Weeks

Clinton D. McKinnon, representative in Congress from the 23rd congressional district, has returned to San Diego for two weeks.

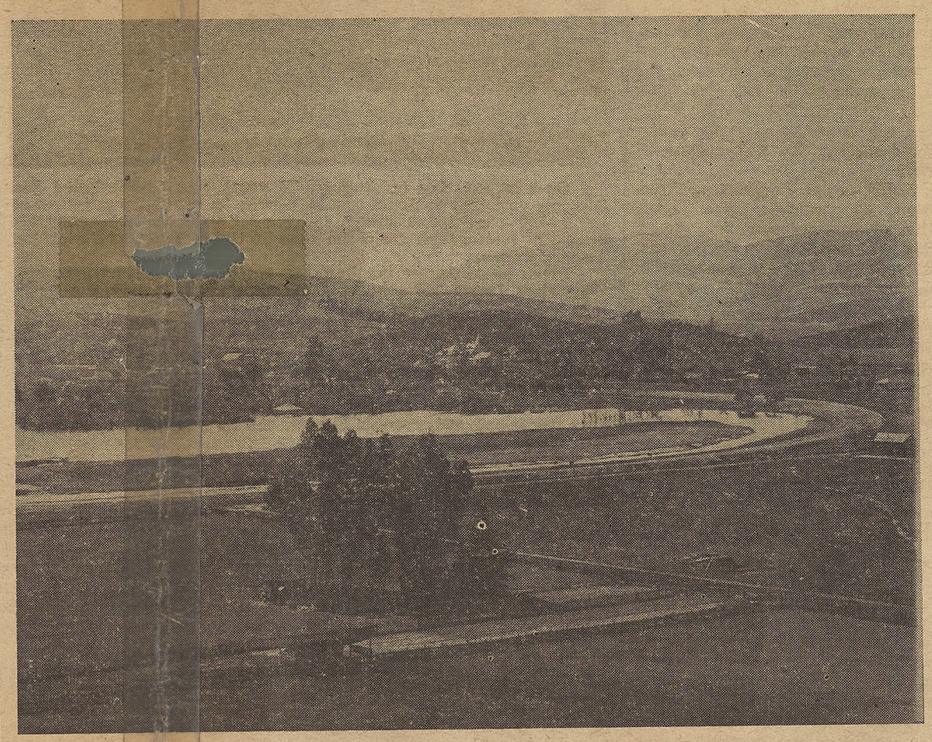
"Look me up if I can be of service to you," he reminds his constituents.

Repr. McKinnon's office is in Room 209 in the San Diego Post Office Building.

(Mr. McKinnon's column "Your Representative Reports" will be found on page 6, this issue.)

Plans Being Made to Restore Water, Fish, to Lindo Lake

Lindo Lake, Near the Turn of the Century



LINDO LAKE, pictured above, as it appeared in the year 1909, shows the lake full of water. It was a popular resort for boating, swimming and fishing in those days and for many years after, until drouth dried it up three years ago.

Now, the County proposes to maintain the level by means of wells sunk in the bed of the San Diego River. Nature, however, must assist by supplying a runoff to fill the lake's basin.

The project of providing a permanent water supply for Lindo Lake and stocking it with fish, as now planned, would be a joint county and state undertaking.

Wells will be drilled to augment normal loss by evaporation and seepage. These wells would probably be in county-owned Cactus Park and would tap the San Diego River water sands.

County officials feel certain the State Fish and Game Commission will stock the lake with fish when a water supply is assured.

The wells drilled in Cactus Park would also supply water for the development of that park, also under discussion.

By FLORENCE BEADLE

Lindo Lake and Lindo Park have played a great part in the history of Lakeside. When the El Cajon Valley Land Company laid out the townsite of Lakeside in 1886 they dedicated about 45 acres of land, including the lake, as a public park.

However, John H. Gay, when he purchased the famous Lakeside Inn (center, above) in 1904, fenced in the park and the lake and claimed them as part of his estate. He built a race track around the lake in 1905, and many famous drivers took part in the races, including Barney Oldfield.

The park was for the use of guests of the inn and the general public was excluded. The beautiful grounds and lake were the scenes of many parties. Celebrities and millionaires met there, played golf, went swimming, boating and duck hunting, and attended the races.

In 1916, a few of the old timers who remembered that the land and lake had been dedicated as a park, brought suit for its return. After many long court battles, the County of San Diego regained possession of the Park in February, 1920.

During the four years of litigation the hotel was closed and it never reopened. The widow of John H. Gay, sold the Lakeside Inn to C. S. Judson, to be torn down. This was begun in February of 1920, and the lumber from the hotel went into building many new homes in Lakeside.

The Judsons gave a grant deed of 9½ acres to the County, enlarging Lindo Park to its present size of 54½ acres.

The land in the foreground of the picture above is the 18-acre ranch of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley H. Beadle. The property was bought by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Beadle, when they came to Lakeside in 1892.

Santee School Opens September 19

The opening of Santee Elementary School has been postponed until September 19, at which time the two new classrooms will be ready for occupancy by the first and second grades.

Open house at the school will be September 23, from 7 to 8 o'clock, followed by a PTA meeting, the first of the year.

A joint meeting of the Santee school staff and the PTA Council was held Tuesday morning at the school. Ed Monti, school board member, and Rev. Arthur Huckaby, were also guests.

Mrs. Pierre Van Dyck, PTA president, spoke on "School and Community Cooperation." Principal Jack Thompson, spoke on "The Moral and Spiritual Values of School Work." Dr. Thorsten Carlson, San Diego, had as his topic, "Modern Trends in Reading."

Lunch was served in the cafeteria after the morning session and the meeting resumed for an afternoon study of registration procedures, rules of the school, and other business connected with opening of the new term.

Lakeside Baptist Pastor Graduated from State

John G. Shannon, pastor of the Lakeside Baptist Mission, was graduated from San Diego State College, Sept. 2, and has now assumed the duties of full time pastor.

A church choir is being organized. Anyone interested in becoming a member of the choir is asked to meet with Mrs. Art Mulder, song director, at the church, Wednesday nights at 7.

Otis Owens, Training Union Director, reports a crowd of 75 attended the watermelon feast Friday night at Lindo Park.

Lakeside Needs Its Chamber of Commerce

(An Editorial)

Speaking briefly before the Lakeside Kiwanis-Optimist combined meeting last Friday evening, Supt. Elmer M. Walker expressed the hope that the Lakeside Chamber of Commerce would continue to play an important role in the development of the community.

He suggested that both clubs adopt, as a joint project, support of the local Chamber.

Many were in agreement with this idea.

An active Chamber of Commerce is an asset to every community. Consistent plugging for better roads, parks, and other civic improvements, selling our community, trade and business promotion, are jobs that can best be done by a chamber of commerce.

Certain previous functions of the chamber, such as youth work, have been taken over by the service clubs. All the more time, then, to concentrate on the other projects, such as mentioned above, that are right down the alley of a wide-awake Chamber of Commerce.

A request from a chamber of commerce addressed, say to the Board of Supervisors, requesting road improvement, or support for a community project, gets attention because the chamber of commerce is the widely accepted representative of the business life of every community.

Let's be sure that a voice that has spoken ably and often for Lakeside, does not become silent for lack of support.

SIDNEY JESSOP

Services were held Sept. 7 at Paris Mortuary for Sidney Jessop, 69, retired auto salesman and a resident of El Cajon for 25 years. Burial was in Mt. Hope Cemetery. A wife, Grace, survives.

New Self-Service Case For M & H Market

Twenty-five kinds of packaged cheese, spreads, assorted lunch meats, frying chickens and hams are part of the delicatessen assortment in a new 10-ft. refrigerated Self-Service case at the M & H Market in Lakeside.

Rowe Miller, co-proprietor, says the small packages of cold meats will be especially useful in putting up the children's lunches.

The meat is cut and packaged daily to insure freshness.

An ad, with specials for the M & H Market is on page 2, this issue.

Former Grossmonter Killed In Mine Accident

David Gordon Gunter, 31, a former student Lakeside Grammar School and Grossmont High School, was killed in a mine accident at Butte, Mont., Aug. 24, according to word reaching here this week.

A falling rock in a silver mine of the Anaconda Copper Mining Company was the cause of the tragedy. Mr. Gunter had been in the employ of the company for three years.

He enlisted in the Army in 1940 and served five years. Graveside services at Butte were under the auspices of the American Legion.

Mr. Gunter married Catherine Jolley of Seattle, who survives him, also three children, Mary 7, Susan 3, and David Jr., 1 year.

Other survivors are his mother, Mrs. Nellie Gunter of Lakeside; two brothers, Sgt. Frank W. Gunter of Ft. Lewis, Wash and Everett Gunter of Lakeside; two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Young and Mrs. Elizabeth Crowley of San Diego.

SCHOOL RESUMES NEXT MONDAY

Heavy pre-school registration indicates that Lakeside Schools will have a greatly increased enrollment when the first bell calling students for classes rings at 8:45 a.m., next Monday. All available classrooms are already assigned and all teachers have full classes.

It has not, however, been necessary to double session any classes as yet, according to E. M. Walker, district superintendent, but if present enrollment increases, double sessions will be necessary in the near future.

This year, as a result of the recommendations of auditors who conducted an audit of the school business procedures last year, the school cafeteria will be run on a cash and carry basis. To take care of the occasional instance where a child may forget or lose his lunch money, the PTA will set up a lunch loan fund in the office which will be available to all students.

The price of lunches at the Lakeside Union School will remain unchanged. A hot plate with milk will be served for 15c, with dessert 5c extra.

There will be no cafeteria service at the Lindo Park School, but milk will be on sale at 5c per half pint.

BUS SCHEDULES

A bus schedule is printed below. Any further questions about the schools will be answered by calling H. 4-3445, the Lakeside School, or H. 4-8604, the Lindo Park School.

In general, Mr. Walker states, the same policies as were in force last year, will apply to the assignment of pupils to schools, classes, etc. Pupils in grades kindergarten through the sixth, living in the town of Lakeside, San Vicente, Foster, El Monte and Lakeview areas, will attend the Lindo Park School.

Children living in the Lakeside Farms and Winter Gardens areas will attend the Lakeside Union School.

Exceptions to the above will have to be made in the case of kindergarten children, all of whom will be assigned to the Lindo Park School, and the 7th and 8th grades, all of whom will be assigned to Lakeside Union School.

Mr. Walker asks the forbearance and patience of pupils and parents during the first days of school, when, he says, "New students and greatly increased enrollment will make the first days more bewildering than usual."

Bus Schedules

The following schedule for operation of buses to and from the Lindo Park and Lakeside Grammar Schools, was released this week from the office of E. M. Walker, dist. superintendent:

According to a school bulletin released by Supt. Walker's office this week, barring exceptional circumstances, only children who live a half mile or more from the nearest school are eligible for bus transportation.

Due to the close schedule under which the buses operate, pupils at the designated stops are asked to board buses quickly.

All children living in Eucalyptus Hills will continue to ride the high school bus to and from school.

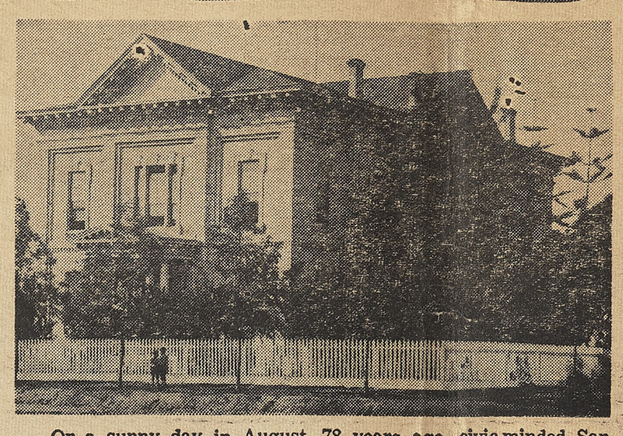
SAN DIEGO COUNTY HISTORICAL SCRAPBOOK

Compiled from the historical records of
UNION TITLE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY • SAN DIEGO



On a sunny day in August, 78 years ago, civic-minded San Diegans gathered at Front and Broadway to lay the cornerstone of the county courthouse, shown above, as it appeared in 1880, in this historical photograph from the files of Union Title Insurance and Trust Company.

Plans to construct the building got u[illegible] in November, 1869 when, "with the affairs of the county in a prosperous condition," the Board of Supervisors voted a $300 architect's fee. Later, a $55,000 bond issue was passed to build a courthouse "with fences, windmill, tank and several other outside arrangements."

Completion of the project was celebrated on June 1, 1872 with a formal dance-reception in the new building.

Through the years as San Diego grew, sections were added to the building, walls torn down, and passageways cut through. Probably few people today would identify the simple structure above as the "heart" of the present courthouse.

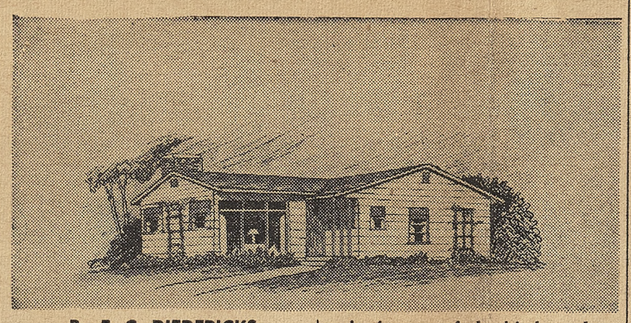
Brodie Backs Cloyed

Dr. Clifford C. Brodie, of Oceanside, who has frequently been mentioned as a possible candidate for the office of Assemblyman in the 80th District, has formally announced his withdrawal with a statement in favor of Ralph R. Cloyed, who has received the endorsement of the County Central Committee.

Dr. Brodie commented, "In my opinion, the 80th Assembly District will have an official in Ralph Cloyed of whom they can be proud. He is strictly honest, sound thinking, efficient and a hard worker. He will work tirelessly for the best interests of his district, and will be an able representative of all the people."

My Home of Tomorrow



By F. C. DIEDERICKS
Home Planning Editor

Many extra features not ordinarily found in smaller homes makes this plan noteworthy. Six full height closets and storage areas, the general convenience of access to all parts of the house, simplification of design which makes for ease of construction and the fact that the size and shape of the unit allow it to be placed on a very narrow lot. The size of the house is 860 square feet.

LIVING ROOM

Full eight windows make the living room seemingly open up to the outdoors, which although the room is quite large, makes it seem much larger. This also makes for an excellent decorative treatment of the room in the use of colorful drapes and window furniture. The opposite end of the room contains the fireplace on either side of which bookcases and shelves can be built. A portion of room along the kitchen wall can be used, as a formal dining area and french doors can be put in next to the fireplace. A separate entry hall with direct access to the kitchen is also a desirable feature. A coat closet is located, also, in the entry hall.

BEDROOMS

Both bedrooms have sliding door wardrobes, and ample wall space for arranging furniture. The windows can, of course, be relocated to suit the builder, corner windows being suggested. In the hall there is located the linen closet and an accessory storage closet. The hall is of a minimum size to avoid waste space. The bathroom is most conveniently located to serve all parts of the home and is arranged so that the tub—shower is not under the window.

KITCHEN

A neatly located nook is the main feature of the kitchen along with ample counter area and storage cabinets. A very interesting kitchen can be obtained by using leatherette cushions in the nook, bright colors throughout, and possibly some shelves for small plants at the right end of the sink counter on the wall. An efficient service porch furnishes the required room for laundry facilities and broom closet area.

APPEARANCE

As pictured, the exterior finish is of wood siding, however if the biulder desired stucco could be used in conjunction with the siding and a very interesting effect could be obtained. The right side as shown could be used as the front if the lot width permitted. The large picture windows add much to the appearance as do the slab door and the vertical trellis members. Decorative trellis pieces can also be added for tie-in portions of the exterior not covered by window or door openings. The house is suited to any area and its clean conventional appearance will never be outmoded.

PLANS AVAILABLE

Building blue prints of this house, No. 554, including floor plans and elevations, are available at $7.50 for the first set, and $6.25 for each additional set, when ordered through this newspaper.

Padres Battling to Get Into Playoffs

Final chapter in the exciting sports saga which has been written by the San Diego Padres this season come off the presses at Lane Field in San Diego starting next Tuesday night when Manager Bucky Harris' men conclude the long Pacific Coast baseball league schedule with a two-week home stand.

First barrier in the path of the Harrismen will be the Portland Beavers, who, while going nowhere in particular in the standings, have a way of causing trouble to pennant aspirants. After the Beavers, come the downtrodden Los Angeles Angels, the club the Padres hope to use to secure first division standing.

Next Wednesday night has been designated as Padre Picture Night, with every patron receiving a handsome autographed team photograph, suitable for framing.

The following campaign committee was selected from representatives from almost every section in San Diego County. They are:

F. W. Powell, La Mesa, campaign manager; Mrs. Ella Mae Rogers, Del Mar, campaign committee chairman; Mrs. Zella Crown, El Cajon, executive sec.; Robert Penn. Chula Vista, treas.; Mrs. Jerry Hess, Mt. Helix, La Mesa, office sec'y.

Others speaking on behalf of Mr. Crane were Mrs. Ethel Phillips of Ramona and Mrs. Edna Lynde of Solana Beach.

Mr. Crane also spoke at the meeting. "I am simply going to do my best to see to it that the taxpayers' money is not spent foolishly or wastefully," he said. "But I will not be a party to any false economy which cuts appropriations for needed hospitals, schools, aged and blind aid, disabled veterans' homes and kindred service."

Help for Hiccupers

Administration of quinidine sulphate is the newest technique in treating hiccups, reports Cosmopolitan magazine. Additional help came from increasing body fluids and body calcium.

The Federal Government contributed over $7,000,000, or 40% of the cost of old age pensions in July, it is reported by Mrs. Myrtle Williams, State Director of Social Welfare.

SAN DIEGO COUNTY HISTORICAL SCRAPBOOK

Compiled from the historical records of
UNION TITLE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY • SAN DIEGO

San Diego in 1900 was justly proud of its new, latest-word fire-fighting equipment, a part of which is shown above in this historical photograph from the files of Union Title Insurance and Trust Company.

A few years earlier, the city's first serious fire demolished a Children's Industrial Home which stood where the Naval Hospital now is. The local citizenry was spurred to demand better protection, and new engines like the one above were the result.

This photograph shows Engine No. 2 on Fifth Avenue between E and F, at that time almost the center of the city's business district.

In the driver's seat is Al Lambla, an early San Diegan who joined the fire department because he loved excitement. He figured in some of the local road races in the early days of the automobile, and was later the first to drive a gasoline-powered fire engine in San Diego.

EL CAJON TROOP WINS SCOUT SWIM MEET

Troop 46 of El Cajon was declared the winner of the annual Grossmont District Scout Swim Meet, Sept. 1, with a total of 40 points. Troop 128 of La Mesa was second with 72 points. Bostonia's Troop 152, came in 6th with 14 points.

Nearly 150 Scouts took part in the meet, declared to be one of the finest ever held.

According to H. W. Olds, Scout Counselor, the entire meet was marked by the enthusiasm of the boys, preparedness, good judging, and close competition in which a number of records were broken.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Wanda Howard and Elmer M. Walker of Lakeside was made at the faculty breakfast at the Lakeside School Tuesday morning.

Miss Howard has made her home with the O. O. Storm family on Riverview ave, for the last four years, coming here from San Diego. She is a graduate of State College, where she received her BA degree and has a Master's Degree from the University of Washington, where she took post graduate work in music.

For the past year Miss Howard has taught music; also co-teacher of the Sixth grade at the Lakeside Grammar School. She is best known for her outstanding musical talent which enables her to lead and instruct in all vocal and instrumental fields.

The San Diego Symphony recognized her ability by an invitation to play viola in the concert series just ended at Balboa bowl.

E. M. Walker, affectionately known as "Dutch", is principal of the Lakeside School and superintendent of the Lakeside Union School District, serving a community which has watched him grow from boyhood to manhood. He attended the Lakeside Grammar School, Grossmont, and State College.

He served in the Navy during the war and was a Lieut-Comdr. at the time of his discharge.

Chief civic interests at this time are being president of the Kiwanis Club, chairman of the Lakeside Welfare Association, as well as interest in other organizations and projects for the betterment of the community.

It is largely through his efforts that funds for Lindo Park School were secured for this district, and many improvements made in the Lakeside school.

A wedding date has not been set as yet.

Farm Bureau Head Praises Fire Dept.

A small grass fire across the road from the Milton Parfet ranch off Los Coches rd, was extinguished by the Lakeside Volunteer Fire Department late Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Parfet, who has supported the Department with an annual contribution ever since it was started, said this week he appreciated the service the boys in the volunteer department are giving the community.

"It's marvelous the way they drop their work, or in this case, get up from the dinner table, and get to a fire in nothing flat," he said.

Teenagers, OK, Maggie Writes

Dear Elinor:

Don't ask me how it happened, but I found myself spending an evening last week with a bunch of teen age boys and girls. It was quite an experience. There is nothing like contact with the emery of young wit to rub off the accumulation of cobwebs and moss we use as a cushion against new ideas.

I'm beginning to think the kids are pretty smart — not smarty, but IQ smart. In fact, they're good company, and I like 'em.

There are two things I simply must do today. Number One is have the brakes on the car tightened. There has been a series of (so far) minor accidents caused by cars rolling away when they should have been standing still.

Recently on Highway 80 near Glenview a heavy trailer that was parked near the road decided to take off. It rolled across that busy highway and came to an undignified stop, all in a heap, over a steep bank. No one was hurt, but that trailer will never look the same again.

Then, only a few days ago, a car on Lakeview rd. rolled down the driveway into the back porch of a house, causing considerable damage to the building and putting dents in the washing machine, hot water tank, etc. Again, no one hurt. I've also heard of two other cases of cars rolling away while parked "for just a minute." That's all it takes. No one has been hurt YET, but I'm going to have my brakes tightened, to make sure. ,

My Number Two "must" today is to send in $10 to the Civic Corporation for our Fire Department. We had front row seats at a fire the other evening when grass caught on fire at our neighbor's place. The way the fire department boys responded to the call for help was certainly impressive. The truck was there within minutes after the alarm was turned in and the fire was a thing of the past in very short order.

It looked so threatening while blazing, and so harmless when they got through with it one of the onlookers said it seemed a shame to have called the truck for such a little fire. But the boys say: "All fires start little. Call us before they get out of control!"

A bouquet of old fashioned posies to Mr. and Mrs. Guy Nichols on Los Coches rd., who have been building their home, a little at a time, for almost a year. They are young people, with prospects of many years in their new home — good neighbors to all those around them. Both are past 70—and enjoying life.

The reddest faces in Lakeside this week were on a couple of fellows from San Diego who came out to the country to do a little skylarking. They sat on a fender of their car, taking casual shots at doves, but it seems there were houses beyond the doves; also people dwelling within said houses resented having buckshot fall like hail upon their roofs, and in one case, on the shoulders of a householder ducking for cover. When approached by irate property owners the hunters were a little—shall we say—rude, so the P. O.'s called the sheriff and in the official questioning it developed that the hunters were two of San Diego's "finest" cops! How do you like that one?

Must go now.

MAGGIE.

Lakeside, California Sept. 8, 1948 No. 8

The Board of Trustee at its last meeting came face to face with certain space problems which have been created by the rapid expansion of the program of the church. A committee, headed by Claude Weston, was appointed to make a careful study of the situation and to report back to the trustees with specific suggestions. When the long-range plan has been wrought and approved by the trustees and the session, it will in due time be presented to the congregation. To analyze the total space problem, and to arrive at a specific and workable plan for improvement of the facilities of the church will probably require several months.

It is therefore requested that the constituency of the church, which means patrons of the Sunday School and all other interested parties, whether actual members of the church or not, exercise a measure of patience as the church wrestles with the pleasant affliction of growing pains. With the cooperation of all concerned, many if not all of the present space problems can be at least temporarily solved by arranging a schedule which will make double use of existing facilities.

The emphasis falls heavily on the word "cooperation" when double sessions of church services and Sunday school programs are undertaken. The same choir, the same ushers, the same teachers and superintendents should not and cannot be asked to carry the full load. When the program is doubled, the number of those carrying the responsibilities therefore should be likewise increased. The officers of the church have every reason to believe that the essential cooperation is forthcoming.

Next Sunday, Sept. 11, has been designated "Back to School Sunday." In recognition of this annual event in the lives of young people, the minister will prepare a special sermon for the occasion. Sunday School will be in operation for children and young people up through the 7th grade. It is hoped that those who are about to resume their studies in either high school or college will make a special effort to be present for the service in the sanctuary at 10 o'clock.

A slight misunderstanding concerning the date set for beginning the double morning service has been indicated. The date set for this change is Sunday, Oct. 2. Meantime, the church service and the Sunday School program will begin simultaneously at 10 o'clock.

The choir will resume rehearsals on Wednesday eve., Sept. 14. Mrs. A. C. Metcalfe will continue her most acceptable service in the role of director.

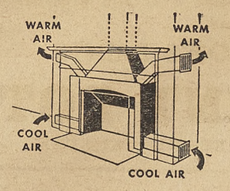
THE HEATILATOR FIREPLACE actually saves and circulates the extra heat that ordinary fireplaces waste up the chimney. It is a hollow steel form around which the masonry is easily laid. Cool air is drawn from floor level, heated and returned to every corner of the room.



The Heatilator Fireplace is a correctly designed steel form around which any style fireplace can be built with greater ease and accuracy. By eliminating usual construction faults, this scientific unit prevents smoking. Surveys show that over half the old-type fireplaces smoke. Build around the Heatilator and be sure of success. Stop in and see the Heatilator, or phone for big folder and prices.

The Optimist Club

Lakeside Calif.

Vol. I September 8, 1949 No. 8

What's this talk about a Junior Optimist Club in Lakeside? Your author this week will attempt to briefly outline an answer to the question.

We Optimists organized a club in this community for one very important reason: to be a friend to the boys of Lakeside. Part of our plans for accomplishing this is to sponsor a Junior Optimist Club. This Club, when organized, will be part of the International organization and will include a clearly defined program of activity made by the boys for the boys. They will have their own constitution and by-laws executed by their own elected officers. Under the guidance of the Boys' Work Committee, and the club as a whole, the Junior Club will have the opportunity to participate in such activity as sports, handicraft, oratory, dramatics, essay contests, glee clubs, parliamentary procedure and a host of other things that could satisfy almost any individual desire.

All that has been mentioned is possible. It cannot, however, be accomplished in a day, or maybe not within a year, but it can be a reality with hard work and a lot of faith in our motto—"Friend of the Boy."

Never Mind the Heat; Banty Goes a-Shopping

Tuesday was a normal day, except, for the heat, that kept many people home, trying to keep cool.

A little tan bantum hen, however, decided that Tuesday noon was a good time to do a little shopping and take care of some business at the bank.

Disregarding auto and pedestrian traffic, she reached the bank corner, then seemed to be a bit confused which direction to go.

After a little persuasion, she consented to go home with Mrs. J. B. Maloney for a glass of iced tea.

The little hen is still at the Maloney home, established in a chicken guest-room, but still fretting about those errands left undone Tuesday.

Who does this hen belong to? Owner can have same by calling at Maloney's on Cajon rd., Rt. 2, Box 387.

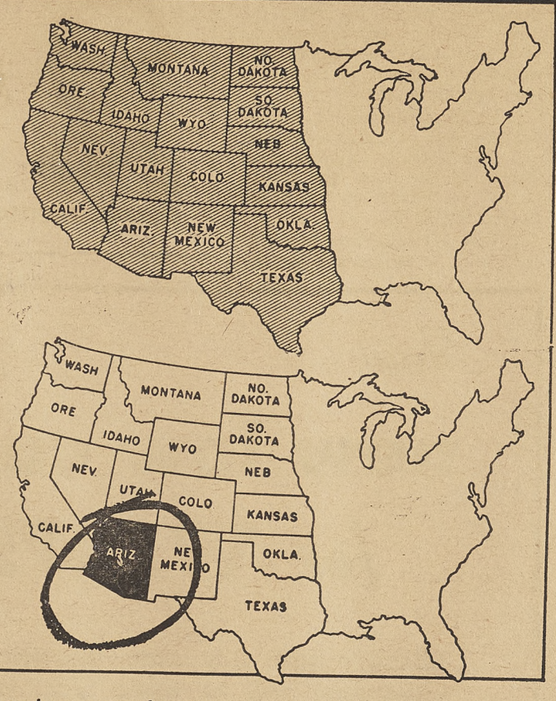
RAID ON RECLAMATION FUNDS REVEALED

$993,307,000 FOR 17 STATES

Library of Congress tabulation shows that total government appropriations for building reclamation projects in the 17 western reclamation states amounted to $993,307,000 during the entire 11 year period from 1939 through 1949.

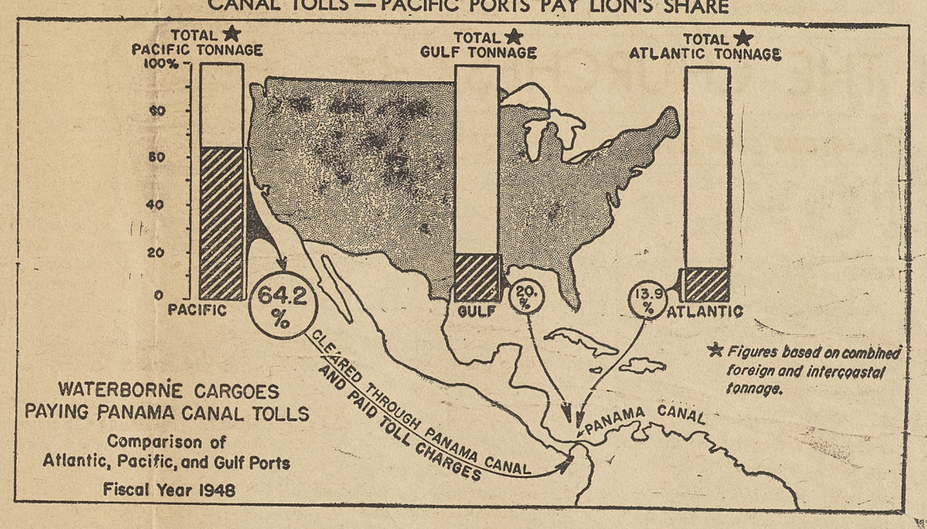
$738,000,000 FOR ONE STATE

Arizona is making Congressional bid for one irrigation project costing a minimum of $738,000,000 for initial development only. Additional tunnels and dams would raise total project cost to an estimated $1,500,000,000.



Backers of western reclamation development have expressed grave concern over possible fate of numerous state programs if Arizona's request for a huge irrigation project should be granted. They point out that this proposal gives Arizona the lion's share of all available funds. To meet such a threat, a fight is being waged behind the scenes in Congress over Senate Bill 75 and House Resolution 934. These are the controversial bills calling for the largest reclamation appropriation ever made to a single state. The reclamation states involved in this vital matter are: Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Texas, Utah, Washington and Wyoming.

CANAL TOLLS — PACIFIC PORTS PAY LION'S SHARE



Proportionately, Pacific Coast cargoes pay the lion's share of Panama Canal tolls. Almost two-thirds (64.2%) of Atlantic and 20% of Gulf cargoes pay tolls.

The West's lumber, lumber products, fruits, vegetables and other products move through the Canal to broader markets in the East. And its exports to European, Mediterranean, African and eastern South American ports must pay tolls. Inbound, the West pays tolls on the whole range of manufactured goods from the industrial East.

Factors used in setting tolls include not only the cost of commercial cargoes going through the Canal, but also the cost of free passage for government ships, and unrelated government activities at the Canal, according to the Pacific American Steamship Association.

Important to the Maritime Industry and users of its services will be a report due by September 1 from a Congressional sub-committee investigating the Canal's financial operation. It will make recommendations on factors to be used in setting future tolls.

Cooperation of All Will Help Party Line Service

In an effort to improve the telephone service on party lines in the El Cajon exchange area, the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company has mailed circulars to subscribers on lines reporting service difficulties.

Because of the annoyance of having someone dial when the phone is being used, the letter asks party line users to listen for the dial tone before trying to dial a number.

Another party line difficulty is caused by children playing with the telephone. The company asks the cooperation of parents: "If you have children in your family, we appreciate the cooperation you are giving toward limiting their play with the telephone."

The company suggests that maximum service on a party line will be had, if all subscribers observe the following:

1. Placing the receiver on the hook or cradle as soon as a conversation is completed.

2. Not removing the receiver from the hook except to make or receive a call. (In some instances of day-time sleeping, sickness, funeral and for other reasons, without realizing that the service of all parties on the line is being shut off, the receiver is removed from the hook to prevent the bell from ringing.)

2. In families where there are children, making certain that they do not play with the phone.

4. Keeping the telephone location clear of books, magazines or other articles which might partially lift the receiver.

5. Where a household has more than one telephone, a call may be answered or a conversation started on one of the telephones and continued on the second. In such instances it is important that the receiver on the first telephone is replaced on the hook.

ETHEL BARRYMORE, Hollywood—"I'm just starting — at 70 years I feel younger today than I did, shall we say, 30 years ago."

WILLIAM S. JACK, industrialist, in San Diego—"Making employees feel they are part of the business that employs them will result in greater efficiency, higher morale, and lower production costs."

The Welfare State vs. Individual Initiative

The whole concept of the welfare State—in which the government would theoretically do everything for everybody, and no one would have to do anything for himself—is based on the concept that the traditional American system, with its emphasis on individual freedom and responsibility, is wrong.

Winston Churchill recently touched on that idea in these telling words: "It must occur to sensible people to ask themselves how it is, if this American system is so wrong, that the American democracy of 140,000,000 hard working people are able to keep themselves at a far higher standard of life than we are—and bear so large a part of our burden."

When refugees from Europe reach New York, pass through quarantine, and are finally given the freedom of this country, one of their first acts, as a rule, is to walk around the streets of the metropolis and look in the store windows. Most of them are amazed to the point of speechlessness. Never in their lives have they seen such abundance. It is beyond belief that anyone can walk into a store and buy a refrigerator, an outfit of clothes, an automobile, a load of groceries, or anything else he wants, and in any quantity he wants.

Then, when they move on across the continent, they find this abundance everywhere. In New York the stores are bigger and there are more of them, but in the small towns the stores offer the same kind of goods, and at about the same prices. All of them are doing their best to attract the buyer and to gain his good will.

This is the spirit of free enterprise that has made America great.

"Family Closeups" Broadcast Sept. 11

In a nation-wide effort to give the public greater insight into the causes of family discord and suggest where close-at-hand professional help is available, station KFMB and the Family Service Association, a Red Feather service of the San Diego Community Chest, will join family service agencies and American Broadcasting affiliates throughout the country in presenting "Family Closeup," a documentary radio series, starting Sunday, Sept. 11—7:30 to 8 p.m.

The initial broadcast will portray the story of a young husband with a double problem. The story is of Tom, who like other plant workers faced the possibility of a layoff but reacted with particular violence because he expected favored treatment from a plant manager who had taken the place in his life of his own father.

Congressman Reports—

By C. D. McKINNON, Repr.

"Politics make strange bedfellows."

But I never saw it enacted in such a tense and dramatic way as I did last week on the House floor.

The fight was over the FHA private housing bill—particularly a section that authorized the government to make 4% direct loans to veterans if private lending institutions failed to do so.

Preparing the bill in committee, the Democrats had voted in favor of that provision; the Republicans against it.

When we appeared before the Rules Committee to get clearance to move the bill on to the floor, Chaiman Spence and Mike Monroney spoke heartily for the bill and the direct loan provision, saying that this would be the only way to guarantee veterans 4% loans. Jesse Wolcott, ranking Republican member, attacked the provision, declaring it was socialistic.

The conservative Rules Committee sided with Wolcott and would not report the bill. Finally, to get an FHA bill, the Democratic members had to knuckle down and take the Wolcott version.

When the bill came to the floor, however, Monroney offered the direct veteran loan provision and it was passed.

The Republicans did not give up. They went to Marcantonio, the New York radical, and offered their support for his usual anti-segregation amendment.

Marcantonio, a master strategist, offered his amendment in the closing minute of debate and there was no time left to unmask the strategy.

For while both parties are committed in their platforms to civil rights, usually the northern Democrats and a few northern Republicans are the only ones to support such legislation, while southern Democrats and conservative Republicans line up against it.

This is not the first time an anti-segregation amendment has been offered as a rider on housing legislation, and it always poses a tough problem to those who favor civil rights and at the same time want housing. For actually, the civil rights amendments are offered in such a way as to make housing construction extremely difficult, if not impossible.

By a peculiar voting arrangement in the House, progressive housing legislation can be killed by a progressive civil rights rider.

It happens this way: Most southerners will vote for progressive housing legislation, but if civil rights are tacked on, they will vote against the entire bll.

Conservative Republicans will vote against any progressive housing legislation, irrespective of a civic rights amendment.

The combination of the two groups forms a majority.

Thus, it becomes necessary for a California Democrat, who wants both housing and civil rights, to decide whether he is going to be practical and settle for housing, or whether he is going to to stand by his idealism and get nothing. Because he knows that the people who benefit from civil rights are usually the ones who need housing most, he chooses the practical alternative.

So last week, in order to keep alive a good housing bill, many of the Northern Democrats, who a few weeks ago had been voting for the anti-poll tax bill, found themselves lined up with the Southerners and voting against anti-segregation. Meanwhile, the Republicans who normally vote with the Southerners on civil rights, were voting with Marcantonio (a man they politically avoid like poison, although he personally is very likeable, as is Wolcott).

The anti-segregation amendment carried, too. So we had a bill with direct veteran loans which the Republicans disliked, and civil rights which the Southerners abhorred. Obviously, the bill would be defeated upon final passage.

Chairman Spence hurriedly withdrew the bill from the floor and there followed a long period of confusion.

Later that afternoon, it was agreed in our Banking and Currency Committee that if the Democrats would not offer the direct veteran loan amendment to a new bill, the Republicans would not support the anti-segregation amendment.

Such an arrangement worked out the next day, and a housing bill that provides (among other things, for 5% down and 30 yrs. to pay on homes up to $9,000 passed the House.

It was a Democratic bill and, in a way, a Democratic victory. But there was no enthusiasm in winning, for the price had been too great.

The only hope lies in the expectation that the Senate will pass the direct loan provision for the veterans, and that this provision will be adopted by both houses in conference, and the final law will contain the original objectives.

Since I will be in San Diego for two weeks after Labor Day, this will be the last column for some time. I want to express my appreciation to the editor and publisher of this newspaper for graciously providing space for my report to you. I would also like to thank the readers for their kind comments upon the column. It has often taken my Sunday afternoon, but it is only right that I should make a regular report to my "bosses" on the job you've entrusted to me.

Hints to a Husband

Tell me your socks are nicely mended,
Tell me my cooking is really splendid,
Admire the rooms I've swept and dusted,
Say my accounts can all be trusted,
Tell me I'm thrifty, house-proud and neat—
I'll turn a deaf, deaf ear, my sweet.
But say my smile is completely charming,
My manner utterly disarming,
Say that I look, in Alice blue,
As young as when I married you,
Tell me my lips are soft and tender,
Murmur I'm getting ah! so slender,
And darling that will do the trick—
But lay it on a trifle thick,
For when it comes to things I'm NOT,
Of these I can stand an awful lot.

Christian Science Subject 'Substance'

"Substance" will be the Sunday Lesson-Sermon subject in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. The Golden Text is from I Corinthians: "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit."

In John's Gospel Jesus says, "If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. . . . The Comforter, . . . whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you. . . . Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. . . . These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full."

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures:" "If the disciple is advancing spiritually, he is striving to enter in. He constantly turns away from material sense, and looks towards the imperishable things of Spirit. If honest, he will be in earnest from the start, and gain a little each day in the right direction, till at last he finishes his course with joy."

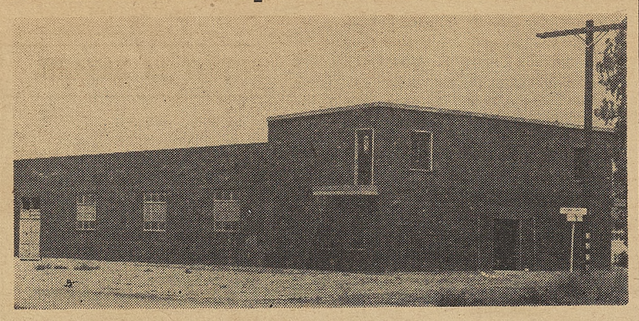
A Church Built by Faith and Hard Work



What a small group of people, with singleness of purpose, can accomplish, is well illustrated by the new church edifice of the El Cajon Assembly of God, pictured above, well on the way to completion. The church, at the corner of Avocado and Washington sts., will have a value of $65,000. Raising building funds and actual erection of the church has been accomplished by a congregation of approximately a hundred and its energetic pastor, Rev. Stanford E. Linzey.

First services in the new church are planned for Sunday, Sept. 18.

The auditorium, seating over 500 is the largest of any church in the Valley.

Reverend Linzey began planning to build the church upon his discharge from the Service. He was a Navy Chaplain. Construction of the church began in June of 1948.

There are, in addition, prayer rooms and Sunday School rooms.

Services of the El Cajon Church of God formerly were held in the USO building.

Fellowship Meeting of Lakeside Service Clubs

The first joint meeting of Lakeside's two new service clubs, attended by nearly eighty men, was marked by a good dinner and good fellowship.

The meal was served by the ladies of the Catholic Church, at their recreation hall.

Assisting in arrangements for the evening were Doug Biggs of the Lakeside Kiwanis Club and Bob Watkins of the Lakeside Optimist Club.

Elmer M. Walker and Bing Miller, presidents of their respective clubs, spoke briefly.

Entertainment was provided by A. K. Macgillivray, tenor, and the Greenwood Singers (Mrs. Violet Hamilton, Mrs. Naomi Thomas, Mrs. Pauline Gleason and Bailey Warren.

Before adjournment at 8:30 p.m., the Kiwanis members sang a rousing song and the Optimists came right back at them with a number "Stop Forever Hunting Troubles."

The spirit of good fellowship continued after the meeting, as groups met outside to sing and talk.

End Men, Soloists, Tune Up for Minstrel Show

Music for the Minstrel Show was received in time for last Friday evening's regular meeting and was passed out to member of the "circle." This part of the show consists of 12 solo numbers to be sung by end men and soloists, three chorus numbers making up the opening overture and one number to be sung by the entire cast — the finale.

All tunes are "revivals" or old chestnuts, which were favorites of the minstrel days, dressed up in brand new arrangements adapted to barbershop harmony.

The Moonlighters appear at the Camp Fire Girls county conclave Friday with the able support of the "Starlighters," the latter consisting of Sharon Hoffman, Dixie Carender, Chloe Barkdull and Nancy Barkdull.

The regular Friday evening get-together will be held at the Community Church manse, next door to the church in Lakeside, and meetings will continue there until further notice.

All who are interested in Barbershop singing are cordially invited to attend.

The new songs, "Top o' the Morning" and "You're In Love With Someone," are expected to be in the hit class once the film is released.

MOTHER GOOSE PARADE NOV. 19

Date of the Mother Goose Parade in El Cajon recommended for November 19 by Chairman Cathers was approved Wednesday by the board of directors of the El Cajon Valley Chamber of Commerce.

Chairman Cathers reported that plans for the parade — a huge success last year — are progressing in fine shape.

The directors also agreed to participate in the Julian Apple Day Parade, by having representation there.

Sponsor "National Kids' Day"

Underprivileged children in more than 3,000 U. S. and Canadian communities will receive assistance from a far-reaching program of youth welfare announced this week by, left to right, J. Hugh Jackson, Stanford, Calif., president of Kiwanis International; Charles Pettijohn, Hollywood, executive secretary of the National Kids' Day Foundation, and J. Belmont Mosser, St. Marys, Pa., immediate past president of Kiwanis International.

Jackson, in announcing the cooperative effort, said "the problems of underprivileged children are the problems of the entire nation, but their solution depends upon local action. There are more than 3,000 Kiwanis clubs which are geared for participation in the program."

Focal point of the campaign will be the observance of an annual "National Kids' Day," the first to be held Saturday, Nov. 19, when each community will be asked to enlist the support of its citizens in meeting the problems of local youth.

National Kids' Day sponsors emphasized that it will not be celebrated as a holiday or used as a gift-giving occasion. "Observance of this day," Jackson said, "is a means of rallying the forces of each community toward solving local juvenile problems. We hope to raise funds to carry on a year-round program of youth activity in cities and towns in the U. S. and Canada. Money raised locally will be spent in the same community for the benefit of children."

Water Level Constant In San Vicente Lake

Even though water usage has been high the past month by all agencies of the County Water Authority, the water level at San Vicente is fairly constant around the 155-ft. mark at the dam's gauge.

There is a slight drop during hours of maximum use, but the reservoir builds up as Colorodo River water pours in during the night hours.

According to reports, fishing at San Vicente has leveled off to a steady, but not large number of anglers. The lake water is unusually clear, which may account for the rather poor showing made by fishermen. The fish are there—they can be seen through the glass-like water, but they are indifferent about taking the bait.

El Capitan's water level is low, but because of drainage from Lake Cuyamaca above, has more water in it than this time last year.

Poisoned Food Killing Pets In Winter Gardens

Beautiful and valuable pets are falling victim to poisoned food in the Winter Gardens area, it was reported this week.

Dog and cat owners are advised to keep them under close watch.

The sheriff's office and the humane society will welcome information leading to the identity of those leaving poisoned food where animals can find it.
